

WILDERNESS FIRST AID and CPR

on April 22 and 23, 2017

at QSR

- What is it? The course is a fun, two-day, academic and practicum, with field-training experience. Adult CPR/AED is a pre-requisite and will be offered on Saturday evening April 22 for those who do not have a current Red Cross, ECSI, or AHA certification in CPR/AED.
- WFA is recommended for BSA activities in remote back country settings where emergency response is more than 30 minutes away and meets BSA National High Adventure requirement (Philmont, Summit, Canoe Base & Sea Base) to have at least one trek participant “trained and certified in Wilderness 1st Aid.”
- Who? Course is open to registered adults & youth (14 years and older). First Aid merit badge is recommended, but not required.
- When? WFA from 8:30 AM to 6:00 PM April 22 and from 8:30 AM to about 3 PM April 23. CPR/AED will be offered after supper on Saturday for those who need it.
- Where? Quivira Scout Ranch Dining Hall and basement training rooms.
- Cost? $50 fee for WFA includes texts, workbook, handouts, activity materials, a 2 year certificate, and food.
$20 fee for Adult CPR/AED is listed as a CLASS OPTION on WFA registration. (if you do not have a current certificate).
- Registration? Pre-registration is required! Deadline for registration is April 17, 2017.
Class Size is Limited to 24!!!
- Online registration is available through www.Quivira.org/Training webpage link.
- * Youth age 14 – 18 should contact Candi Chase to register for WFA. ***
- Food & Lodging Bring a tent and prepare to camp out (Car camping). We will supply lunch both days, dinner on Saturday night and breakfast on Sunday. Bring your own snacks and Saturday breakfast. Please let us know ahead of time if you have any special dietary needs.
- Bring What? Please bring a pen/pencil, note paper and a current Annual Health & Medical form (Parts A & B only). Wear comfortable older trekking clothes. No uniforms as some exercises could stain your clothes.
- More Info? A participant letter will be e-mailed the week before to those for whom we have e-mail addresses.
