

Recognize a Scouter, Friend or Family Member with a Memorial Brick

“Delivering the Promise” Capital Campaign

The “Delivering the Promise” Capital Campaign has made a significant impact in the camping experience for Scouts at Camp Kanza and Quivira Scout Ranch.

To date, over $4 million has been invested in both of these properties and improvements, upgrades and new construction include:

QSR – a new 13,000 square foot dining hall with training center that doubles as a storm shelter, expanded aquatic and shooting sports programs, new 3 phase electric, hook up to the RWD, pavilions in the nature, conservation and shooting sports areas and new ski boat.

Camp Kanza – renovated dining hall, Mann Lodge, trading post and first-aid lodge, new amphitheater, BMX trail, Spirit AeroSystems Learning Center, Cessna Aviation Center, shower house, pool house and renovated pool.

Koch Scouting Center – a new one story, 15,000 square foot Council Service Center that will be ADA compliant, visible and easily accessible with ample parking. Featuring an expanded Scout Shop and training and conference rooms for use by volunteers, leaders and the community.

Even with the new service center completed you can still give in these ways:
Appreciated stock, land, cash,
pledges over 1-3 years or memorial gifts

Prepared. For Life.™

Recognize a Scouter, Friend or Family Member with a Memorial Brick at Camp Kanza, Quivira Scout Ranch, or the Council Service Center

The memorial brick program is a lasting recognition that is fitting for a Scouter, Eagle Scout or family member. At Quivira Scout Ranch, pavers will be placed outside the dining hall. At Camp Kanza, pavers will be placed outside Mann Lodge. At the Council Service Center, pavers will be placed outside the entrance.

Pavers will be available in two sizes with corresponding space for a name and recognition.

Don't miss this opportunity to recognize that special Scout or Scouters!
