

OUR COMMITMENT TO SAFE SCOUTING

KNOW THE FACTS:

- The BSA & the Quivira Council maintain steadfast support for victims of abuse. One instance of abuse is one too many.
- Strict Safe Scouting policies are in place and all suspected instances of abuse are reported to law enforcement.
- More than 90% of all youth protection lawsuits are incidents that happened prior to 1987 - the same year the BSA's two-deep leadership policy was implemented.
- The Quivira Council, our camps, service center, and finances are locally owned and operated.
- All funds contributed to the Quivira Council stay local.
- The Quivira Council will continue to do what we do best - deliver a safe and high quality Scouting experience for more than 8,000 Scouts and their families.
